

Would you run 560kms in 7 days?

Hi there,

Our very own Rodney 'Rocket' Cottam embarked on an extraordinary mission last week: running 560 kilometres in just 7 days. Covering 80 kilometres per day, Rodney ran from Western NSW to the heart of Sydney CBD, finishing in Resimac head office on Friday.

The challenge was not just about pushing the physical limits but also about raising awareness and funds for a cause close to many of our hearts – supporting veterans through The challenge was not just about pushing the physical limits but also about raising awareness and funds for a cause close to many of our hearts – supporting veterans through Invictus Australia. Rodney set an ambitious target to raise $56,000 to support veterans facing their own battles, and he's still accepting donations.

You can donate here at Run Rocket Run.

Rodney shared as he ran over the finish line, "whilst I was doing it tough and having to dig deep for 7 days to complete the 560kms, too many of our veterans are having to do it tough every day due to ongoing physical and mental injuries. They need our help."

Rodney's mission is supported by generous partners, including Resimac, Optus, Momentum Media, Parramatta Jaguar Landrover, Wise Physiotherapy and Whiskey&Friends.
