

The Hobart Hurricanes are BBL|14 champions!
As principal partner of this mighty team, we couldn't be prouder.

To celebrate their historic win, we're extending our free val promo and rate and loading reduction offer, yet again!

That's right, our free residential valuation offer, and current rate and loading reductions, which were due to end on January 31, 2025, have been extended until further notice!

What's included?

Free val promo

RedZed is providing free standard valuations for residential properties valued at ≤ $2 million, when brokers order their customers' residential valuations through CoreLogic's PropertyHub. T&Cs apply^.

Rate and loading reductions

The following rate and loading reductions apply to new business only and are available until further notice.

SE Prime alt doc rates reduced

We've reduced our SE Prime alt doc rates for new business at all LVR bands.

Reduced investment loading on SE Prime

We've reduced our investment loading on SE Prime products from 0.3% to 0.15%. Plus:

- Zero interest-only loading on SE Prime
- Zero loadings on our specialist product range (full doc and alt doc residential specialist products only)

Reduced SMSF commercial app fee

We've slashed our SMSF commercial app fee from 1% of the loan amount to 0.5%.

^Valuation must be ordered through CoreLogic's PropertyHub by you, the originating broker. You must select RedZed as the provider and "RedZed Broker Promotion". 1 Free valuation per application. Applies to AVM, SMARTVal and Short form valuations only. Applies to standard residential properties only. Excludes commercial or specialised security properties. Does not apply to residential properties valued above $2 million. Valuations must be ordered from 24th September 2024 until further notice. Valuations must be for a genuine RedZed application. For new business only
